Part II, Section C, Facts and Circumstances Test:

The Foundation for Western Wildlife Agencies fails to meet the public support test for the year ended June 30, 2018. However based on the following facts and circumstances, the organization should continue to be recognized as a publically supported organization under Internal Revenue Code 509(a)(1).

The total amount of public support for the organization during the above mentioned period is 21.99%. Therefore, the total public support support is greater than the required 10%.

In prior years, the organization received more than 33 1/3% of its support from government units or from the general public. However, during the June 30, 2018 fiscal year end, the organization applied for and was awarded a $278,000 grant in support of its Western Native Trout Initiative.

The organization does not receive support from a single individual; rather it receives support from members of the general public. The Foundation for Western Fish and Wildlife Agencies is served by a governing body that represents the interest of the public; it does not represent the interest of the donors of the organization. These representatives ensure that the organization provides assistance for a wide range of conservation programs.
