CARCD Tribal Liaison Program

Heather Bernikoff

heather-bernikoff@carcd.org

California Association of Resource Conservation Districts

A recent hire at CARCD, Heather brings over two decades of experience in nonprofit program management and leverages her experience as a land steward installing pollinator and wildlife habitat on her ranch in the Sierra foothills. She was a gubernatorial appointee to the Sierra Nevada Conservancy in 2021 helping the agency expand their work with Indigenous and underserved communities. She is an enrolled member of the Yaqui tribal community in Southern California and most recently worked as a consultant doing capacity building work with tribal communities.
