

TAKE FLIGHT 2024

VIRTUAL PARTNERS MEETING

Advancing Western Monarch and
Native Insect Pollinator Conservation

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 2024

CA Multi-Agency Monarch & Pollinator Collaborative

Hillary Sardiñas

hillary.sardinas@wildlife.ca.gov

California Department of Fish and Wildlife

Dr. Hillary Sardiñas is the Pollinator Coordinator in the Wildlife Diversity Program at the California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife. She has extensive experience restoring pollinator habitat and coordinating with public and private partners on pollinator conservation. She earned her PhD from UC Berkeley where she studied how on-farm habitat restoration can support pollinator populations while increasing crop productivity. She got her Bachelor's from UC Santa Cruz in Environmental Studies.